PROCEEDING MEMO

MATTER #236 Discovery Dispute Between Honeywell and Mazar USA, LLP transferred from the Southern District of New York

APPEARANCES:

Honeywell:	Craig S. Primis, Ronald Angus Jr., Michael P. Kruszewski
NARCO Trust:	David Ross, Stuart Lombardi, Sander Esserman
TAC:	James P. Wehner, George T. Snyder
FCR:	James Higgins, Gary Philip Nelson, Jennifer Richnafsky, Edwin Harron
Mazars:	John Steiner, James Moyle, Christina Dellaporte

NOTES:

Moyle: I have been instructed to produce everything reasonably available to Honeywell. We have already produced 89,000 pages of documents as of yesterday. The documents that must be reviewed are all in London. We have had discussions with Mr. Angus and are trying to be cooperative, but there are challenges.

Angus: The parties are making progress and we did receive a first production on January 20th Honeywell has concerns about the timing of production because of the upcoming pretrial deadlines.

Court: The current pretrial deadlines will remain in place. Since the parties appear to be cooperating the Court will not refer the matter to mediation at this time, but will be prepared to do revisit the matter quickly if they contact chambers and indicate progress has stopped.

OUTCOME:

Matter put on hold for now; Court will schedule a further hearing upon notice to Chambers that further action is needed.
